WASHINGTON (Reuters) - U.S. Representative Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, a Democratic socialist and top supporter of Sen. Bernie Sanders's failed presidential bid in 2016, said on Friday she would support a candidate who backs a "Green New Deal" with subsidies for U.S. oil producers. The proposal released by Sanders and Massachusetts Senator Ed Markey last week would aim to reduce pollution emissions to net-zero levels by 2030 and generate millions of new jobs in the process. "You have members who have said they are -- on the record -- they are for a Green New Deal," Ocasio-Cortez told reporters.
